News and Notes

Greetings from Potato Slough!

As I write this newsletter my wife Catherine and I, along with our dog Bailey are anchored aboard our 36-foot trawler "Windshadow" in one of our favorite San Joaquin Delta spots. We have had the anchorage mostly to ourselves for the last few days. It's been hot and mostly calm, and we are staying cool by jumping in the water several times a day. If you have never been to the Delta we recommend you give it a try – It's a boater's paradise!

Oyster Cove Marina has announced they are closing and have given all of their tenants until October 15 to vacate. We have been getting a lot of inquiries about slips, so I thought I would update all of you on our situation. We are accepting applications for all size slips, but have no availability of anything over 28 feet until after we dredge this summer. Once the dredging is complete and we return to normal operations we will start accepting new boats. As always, we have no live-aboard slips at Coyote Point. I fear that the live-aboard community at Oyster Cove will face a dilemma, because there are very few live-aboard slips available anywhere in the Bay Area.

We have two new staff members at the Marina! Holeva Finau has joined as Park Aide, and Edwin Ajanel is our new Dock Worker. We are very happy to have them both as part of the Coyote Point team.

We are working with Dutra, the dredge contractor, to try to firm up the schedule. As of now it looks like work is likely to start the third or fourth week of July with the outer channel, harbor entrance, and turning basin. They will be using a large barge for this work. Once these sections are complete smaller barges will be moved in to dredge the slipways and slips. Dock 29 will be first, followed by 28, 27, 26 and 25. The northern part of 13 will also be done, but I am unsure of the order. During slip dredging it will be necessary to move boats around, and we will be asking for your help in doing this.

On behalf all of the staff at Coyote Point Marina, I wish you a happy and safe July 4th holiday!!

-- Mark Bettis, Harbormaster

Reminder - Slip Fee Increase July 1

Effective July 1, 2022 berth rental fees have been increased by 3.21% based on the 2020-2021 annual increase in the Bay Area CPI.

Tenants who are enrolled in ACH automatic payments need take no action, as the increased amount will be debited at the normal time. If you have automatic bill pay in place, please increase the check amount accordingly.

The slip fee increase amounts are below. This notice is available in pdf format here.
